

Pepper 'Orange Blaze'
AAS Vegetable Winner

Although colored peppers can be difficult to grow, the new AAS Winner 'Orange Blaze' solves that problem. This variety proved itself a winner in AAS Trialing Grounds across North America due to early maturity, sweet flavor and disease resistance. It matured to a beautiful orange color earlier than the comparisons. Expect very sweet flavor at full orange color about 65-70 days from transplant. 'Orange Blaze' produces 3 to 4-inch long fruits with 2-3 lobes. High resistance to diseases Xcv 0-3, 7, 8 -Bacterial Leaf Spot and Tm P<sub>o</sub>- Tobamovirus ensure a larger harvest. Bred by Seminis.
