

Potato Clancy F1

The first potato from seed that's an AAS Winner! Resulting spuds are a beautiful ornamental mix ranging from red to rose blush skin tones with interiors of creamy white and yellow. In terms of eating qualities, Clancy has great texture and flavor (a happy medium between that of a yellow-skinned potato and a russet), making it especially good for mashing or boiling.

AAS® Winner Data

Genus species: Solanum tuberosum

Common name: Potato

Fruit size: 4 - 5 inch round, weighing 3 - 4 ounces

Fruit shape: Round to oblong

Fruit color: Rose blush

Plant height: 24 - 36 inches

Plant habit: Mounded

Garden location: Full sun

Garden spacing: 12 inches

Length of time to harvest: 90 - 110 days from transplant

Tested Nationally & Proven Locally®
aaswinners.com