

Squash Goldilocks F1

Once upon a time, there was an acorn squash named Goldilocks. In summer trials all across North America, the vigorous plant, high yield, disease tolerance, and rich nutty flavor of this variety had our judges saying, “Ahhh, this squash is just right!” like in the fairy tale. The bright orange fruits with uniform shape and color double as an ornamental decoration. Makes a great compliment to AAS Winner Honey Bear acorn squash.

AAS® Winner Data

Genus species: Cucurbita pepo

Common name: Squash Acorn

Fruit size: 4 inches x 4 inches

Fruit shape: Round to oval

Color: Orange

Plant height: 30 inch vines

Plant spread: 4-5 feet

Plant habit: Bushy, Compact

Garden location: Full sun

Garden spacing: 2 feet x 6 feet

Length of time to harvest: 85 days from seeding, 70 days from transplant

Closest comparisons on market: Table Gold, Cream of the Crop

Tested Nationally & Proven Locally®

aaswinners.com