

Tomato Zenzei F1

Zenzei is an early-maturing, high-yielding Roma tomato for gardeners in the Midwest. This regional winner produces a great yield of fleshy plum tomatoes that are perfect for canning and freezing. Neat and tidy plants produce fruits that are uniformly shaped and are easy to harvest on unique bushy yet indeterminate plants.

AAS® Winner Data

Genus species: Solanum lycopersicum

Common name: Tomato

Foliage color: Green

Plant height: 72 inches

Plant habit: Bushy, indeterminate

Plant type: Annual

Garden location: Full sun

Garden spacing: 36 inches

Closest comparisons on market: Plum Regal, Granadero

Tested Nationally & Proven Locally®

aaswinners.com