

Sedum Spectacular

This exceptional Sedum spectabile grown from seed delivers the rock-solid garden performance typically found only in vegetative varieties. The plants are remarkably sturdy, full, and do not flop, maintaining a tight, compact, mounded habit perfect for borders or containers.

AAS® Winner Data

Genus species: Sedum spectabile

Common name: Sedum

Foliage color: Chartreuse Green

Plant height: 12-14 inches

Plant habit: Upright, Mounded

Bloom Time: Late Summer, Fall

Bloom Color: Pink

Bloom Size: 3 inches

Garden location: Full sun

Garden spacing: 14-16 inches

Closest comparisons on market: Hot Stuff

Tested Nationally & Proven Locally®

aaswinners.com